The Pre-Marriage Seminar invites couples to explore the wonders, complexities and challenges in transforming romantic idealism into a successful, lifelong Christian marriage.

Through guided conversation, lecturettes, couple conversation and learning activities, Michael and Lori Ebaugh (married 18 years), lead couples to reflect on the challenges of building a lifetime together.

Overall Seminar Goals

- ♣ To present a clear image of the essential facets of a vibrant, successful Christian marriage.
- ♣ To explore each couple's strengths in achieving a fulfilling lifelong union.
- ♣ To equip couples with the necessary perspective and resources to stay married for a lifetime.

Features Include:

- 4 Seminar meets the Catholic Church requirement (approved by Archdiocese of Detroit).
- 4 Professionally designed and delivered with an inspiring, humorous and spiritual focus.
- 4 Planned couple sharing / interactive problem solving / entertaining video segments.
- 4 Compact one day format on Saturdays, 9:00am- 4:30pm or Sundays, 10:30 -6:00pm

What Participants Are Saying:

"Really made us think about what we are getting into. Excellent resource for engaged couples."

"Surprisingly, I learned so much and feel a lot more connected to my fiance' now."

"I was particularly glad and impressed to hear the whole topic of spirituality and relationship with God."

"Very motivated and energetic speakers! They spoke frankly about topics including the realities that couples face today"
